Summer in the City – Part 3

We had high hopes of ending the Summer in the City series on a high note, but the unpredictability of Georgia summer weather got the best of us. Heavy rain forced an early end to the evening — though not before Kurt Thomas took the stage during a brief break in the weather and delivered two songs, ending in a downpour. While not the grand finale we envisioned, it was a memorable and magical way to close out the series. We’re already brainstorming for an even bigger summer lineup next year.

Upcoming Events

- The Baxter Dean Runway Show is planned for Court Street on May 3rd, 2026. Preliminary planning meetings have taken place, and the event is shaping up to be a unique evening for downtown. A permit application will be presented to Council soon.
- Our fall calendar is filling out with a healthy and scalable mix of events:
 - Gem Theatre’s Block Party – August
 - United Way’s Unity Run – September
 - Heavale Brewing’s Oktoberfest – September
 We are now focusing on empowering our downtown retailers to host more micro-events, helping to create additional energy and activation throughout the calendar year.

Rocktober Fest Planning Update

In partnership with Black Sheep Promotions, we are preparing to bring Rocktober Fest 2025 back in a bigger way than ever before. The event will feature a full day of live music, approximately 100 retail, food, and beverage vendors, hayrides, and other family-friendly activities. It is expected to be one of our most well-attended events of the fall season.

This year, we are proposing a relocation of the festival to Wall Street (Hwy 41) in order to more equitably distribute economic benefits throughout the downtown district. While BBQ & Boogie in the spring activates the Court St/Park Ave area, Rocktober Fest will bring the same scale of visibility and foot traffic to businesses and restaurants on Wall Street, including Calhoun Coffee Company, Cassie's on Wall Street, and El Cubano. See our Special Event Permit Application attached for more detail.

Alcohol License & On-Site Business Participation:

As with BBQ & Boogie, Black Sheep Promotions will hold the sole temporary outdoor alcohol license. No outside alcohol vendors are permitted to move within the event zone.

However, businesses located within the festival footprint may sell alcohol directly from their licensed premises, including just outside their storefronts in accordance with city regulations. This structure allows on-site participation while maintaining public safety and compliance. This year, Calhoun Coffee, Cassie's on Wall Street, and El Cubano will have the same opportunity Trackside Pizza and Heavale Brewing Co. had during BBQ & Boogie.

We believe this strategic adjustment will make both our spring and fall festivals stronger and will support a broader range of downtown businesses.

Downtown Calhoun Farmers Market

We're entering the final five weeks of the season. The start of school has shifted the makeup of our shopper base, but interest remains high. In fact, Saturday, August 2nd, may have been our largest market day this year, with a noticeable increase in out-of-town visitors.

We see tremendous long-term potential in the Calhoun Farmers Market. Successful markets function as true community-building projects, driving:

- Increased foot traffic during non-traditional hours
- Support for shopping local

- Interest in walkable, activated downtowns
- Momentum for new food-related businesses

We'll be conducting surveys and gathering data after the season concludes to help plan for future growth and improvements.

Historic Preservation Commission (HPC)

The HPC is in the early stages of a project to design and install a historic district sign for Colbert Cemetery. The commission is working with the Gordon County Historic Society to determine the appropriate size, language, and design of the marker. This will be a meaningful addition to our preservation efforts and public awareness of local history.
