

December 31, 1959
Calhoun, Georgia

City Council met at a call meeting at the city hall with all members being present, except Mr. Spink who was unable to attend.

Mayor Edwards called the meeting to order and stated to the council that the City of Calhoun had a chance to borrow some money to be used to pay for the S. J. Dobson home purchased by the City of Calhoun for the Dave R. Nelson Family. This money could be borrowed from Mr. A. W. Sherman of Adairsville, Georgia. After discussion Alderman David made a motion that the following resolution be adopted: Copy of resolution attached. This motion received a second from Alderman Dickinson voted on and passed.

There being no other business the meeting was adjourned.
